

In a small community like Carlsbad, there is almost no opportunity to hear Christian music. There are thousands of people who listen to K-LOVE locally, who would not have access to this type of programming if it is replaced by an LPFM. A radio station like K-LOVE benefits this community by providing family safe, non-offensive radio for parents and their children.